Stevens reception at and Mr. Jasper C. Baum. Mrs. Weist-Kirkwood, the Jacob-Wells wedding at Clinton, the Married Ladies' Euchre Club, the Island Ladies' Euchre Club, the Mercantile Whist Club entertainments, together with several smaller functions complimentary to visiting guests in the city. The coming week has scheduled, the Jamison-List wedding, the Twentieth Century Girls, and Rabbit's Foot Club receptions, the re-organization of the Friday Night Club, the inaugural reception at the Carroll Club house. Interested talk surrounds the coming McCargo-Graham wedding at Larchmont, N. Y., and the proposed Blue Book for Wheeling.

The society event of to-day will be the inter-city golf game between Washington and Wheeling teams on the Woods dale links this afternoon. The hospitalities of the occasion at the club house are in charge of Mrs. B. Walker Peter-son, assisted by Mrs. Oliver T. Rhodes, Mrs. Charles Howard Simpson Mrs Edward B. Franzheim, Mrs. A. F. Hus tead, Mrs. James Cummins, Mrs. William Pannell Wilson, Mrs. Frank Waterhouse, Mrs. Maud Eccles Heiskell, Mrs. S. Percy Norton, Mrs. W. P. Heiskell, Miss Henrietta Harper and Miss Jessie Thornton Moffat.

Charming in its quiet elegance and simplicity was the reception given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fry Paull in their prettily appointed home at Woodsdale, in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Rebecca Pauli, and their house guests, Mrs. Glover, of Cadiz, Mrs. Pauli, of Wellsburg, and Miss Reed, of Pittsburgh. The hours were from 8 to 11 o'clock and the home and beautiful grounds surrounding were filled with older and younger society sets throughout the time specified.

'At the home of Mrs. George Vardy, on Thirteenth street, the Marired Ladies Euchre Club was handsomely entertained yesterday afternoon between 2 and 5 were Miss Somee, of Terra Haute, the Misses Reed, of Washington, and Miss Catherine Baird, of Washington. Innes is to be here with his band on October 30. The organization comes direct from its summer home at Atlantic City, where it is said to have played to gross attendance of nearly 1,000,000 pald admissions. Alberti, the great baritone, and five other vocal artists of similar standing, will give scenes from grand opera as one of the features of the engagement. Innes holds to the theory that music is good for the health. Good music does for the mind what good food does for the bone and blood. It revivides, purifies and strengthons, It gives alternate invigoration and rest, that is, when the senses correctly interpret it. Some one laughingly asked Innes, after he had written a philosophic article on this subject, why he didn't cure his own enthusiasm and he replied that every doctor lacked confidence in his own medicine and he didn't propose to be any exception to the rule.

The King's Daughters of St Luke's church have arranged an entertain-ment out of the ordinary for next Tuesday evening, to be given in the Parish house on Ohlo.street. The programme

GONE TO OTHER CLIMES.

The Troubles of John Bell Fell Thick and Fast and He Flees From the Prosecution of Creditors.

John Bell, who recently disposed of time past, yesterday swore out war-rants before Squire Rogers for the ar-rest of Kitlle Kraig, Minerva Martin and Clark Rogh, alleging that they rob-bed him of 400 in an Eoff street bagnio at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. He wanted the case heard right away, but wanted the hase heard right away, but the squire continued it until afternoon to allow Officers Michaels and McGuigan (line to investigate the matter. After a close devestigation, it was found that there was no foundation to the charges, and they were dismissed. Soon after the discharge of the prisoners many-freditors, milk men, butchers, ice men, butter and egg men, appeared before Squire Rogers, looking for Bell. Five of the waiters that were in his employ also appeared and there was a general wall of despair that rent the air aind-bunctured big square holes in the atmosphere. Officer Michaels in the atmosphere. Officer Michaels went after the man, but could not find him, as he evidently decamped for a milder elline, where there will be free-dom from persecution and he can rest his head on a downy bed of ease without the pestering thought that at any moment he would be aroused and taken in tow by the mighty minions of the law. During the day Justice Fitzpatrick attached the restaurant to satisfy a claim of $22.95 due William Williams for butter and eggs. The money was re-covered, as the new owner had not yet

A GREAT FIGHT

Will be Monday Night's Between Billy Ryan, of New York, and Oscar Gardner, of Wheeling-Many Visiting Sports are Coming. The twenty-round fight on Monday evening, in the arena of the Metropoli-tan Athletic Club, between Oscar Gardner, of Wheeling, and Billy Ryan, of New York, will be attended by one of the largest crowds of the year at the M. A. C., and that a good fight will result goes without saying, for both mer are hard fighters, who will fight everare hard aghters, who will ught every lach of their twenty-round journey. Ryan is in Scio, where he has been training strenuously, and is expected to reach the city Sunday night. Gardner is reported in the best of condition, and his admirers believe he will be able to put it over the New Yorker. The lat-ter, however, will have many admirers at the ringside.
